

Having a Great Marriage

Most adults will get married at some point in their lives, but not all of them do it well. Today, we have the pleasure of talking with LaVaughn Young, the counseling pastor at Faith Assembly, about some ideas that may be beneficial to those who are married and those who are thinking about getting married.

Discussion

- What are the basic differences in mental and emotional input of the male and female in marriage?

God created us differently

- Men
 - Have a small RAM (like in a computer)
 - Don't deal with details
 - Focus on one thing at a time
 - Feel loved if they are respected
- Women
 - Have large amounts of RAM
 - Deal in details
 - Connect events to emotions
 - Can multitask
 - Feel loved if they are loved
- What do you think is the ultimate design God gave for marriage?
 - Love is a verb: 1 Corinthians 3:14
 - Love is a decision, a choice not an emotion
