

Teachers Treating Students as Their Own

As we continue to celebrate 30 years at Faith Christian School, we asked some teachers to share some of their thoughts on their experience here. Mrs. Maewin Van Horn, Mrs. Cheryl Taylor, and Mrs. Naomi Ziegler share their experiences.

Discussion

What makes Faith Christian School a special place?

Faith is home. Mrs. Taylor has had two of her children graduate from school here. Since the beginning, it has felt like home. Now that she is a teacher here, it is even more of a home than ever.

Faith is family. Mrs. Van Horn wanted to feel comfortable bringing her children here. The teachers told her that they would treat her children like their children, and she has loved it.

The teachers make Faith a special place for Mrs. Ziegler. She was accepted from her first day here. They are very loving and accepting.

What is something that has stood out for you over your years at FCS?

Mrs. Van Horn remembers the 5K tea. She remembers them getting to dress up and make their cookbook.

Mrs. Taylor remembers the graduation of her children. She had the privilege of teaching one of her children.

Mrs. Ziegler remembers her step-daughter coming to school after the start of the year and being accepted as part of the family.

As a parent and grandparent, what would you say to a parent who is considering FCS?

We have great teachers, small class sizes, family atmosphere, Christian beliefs in all of the subjects, a safe place, a good learning environment in a family atmosphere.

Students who have graduated have gone on to do great things in the community. They continue to be friends and have a great relationship with each other.
